CONDITIONS AND PROCEDURES (Please retain this for future reference)

The exhibition will take place between Saturday 8th February and Friday 6th March 2020 at Rutland County Museum, Catmose Street, Oakham, Rutland. The exhibition is organised by a sub-group of Arts for Rutland. The private view will be held on Friday 7th February from 5pm - 7.30pm.

Eligibility

All young Artists, living, or at school in Rutland between the ages of 11 and 18 are invited to enter this selected Exhibition. Works accepted in the following mediums- painting, drawing, ceramic, sculpture and textiles.

Prizes

The prize announcements will be made at the preview.

Entry and procedure

Each artist may enter up to three works. Priority will be given to work made in the last year. Works must be original. Selected work must remain in the museum until the close of the exhibition.

ENTRY IS FREE. All submissions to be delivered in person with an accompanying responsible adult, on SATURDAY 1st February 2019 10am – 2pm. Delivery/collection of work (both unselected and exhibited) is the responsibility of the artist. .

Only original work will be accepted, Maximum acceptable size for two-dimensional work is STRICTLY limited to 70cm x 90cm including frame (portrait or landscape), all work MUST have mirror plates attached for security reasons. For three-dimensional work, dimensions should be no larger than 50cm width square and unlimited in height (bring your own plinth if you prefer). Work larger than these dimensions will be turned away, please note there is no minimum size for inclusion. Each picture must be marked 'Top' on the back of the work, to show which way up it goes. Attach one tie on label that will hang over the front of the work, and one sticky label on the back. The labels must state the artist's name, title of work and medium. On arrival, please unpack your work and take the packaging away with you.

Works submitted for selection and exhibition are at the owner's risk and Arts for Rutland cannot accept responsibility for any loss or damage to work, therefore it is the responsibility of the owner, (if appropriate) to arrange insurance during these periods.

Selection on Tuesday 4th February 2020

By a panel of professional external Judges. The selection panel's decision is final, as is the placing of work.

Collection of unselected work

All applicants will be notified by email or telephone if their work has been selected. Unselected work should be collected as soon as possible, by Friday 7th February between 10am – 4pm from the Museum. Due to limited storage space, the museum reserves the right to dispose of work not collected unless prior arrangement is agreed with the Museum. (Saturday collection by arrangement with Museum)

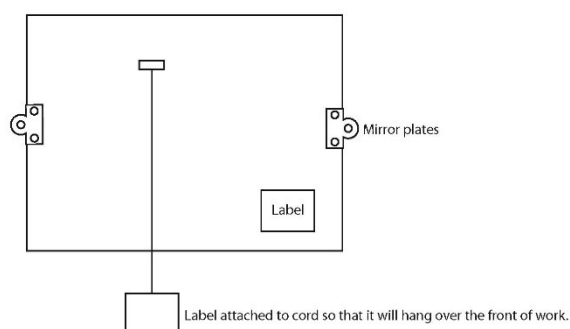

Work must be collected at the end of the Exhibition on Saturday March 7th 2020 between 10am – 2pm.

Publicity

Arts for Rutland reserves the right to photograph work for education and publicity purposes, including on our website, Facebook and Twitter,

The private view is for selected artists, and the friends and family of artists and the Museum's mailing list. Each young Artist selected will get invitations for themselves and family members for the Private View.
